

JUDGMENT

This action by complaint claiming that the defendants be required to interplead concerning their respective rights and claims to any part of the income or benefits of a certain trust fund held by the plaintiffs as Trustees, and that the purposes of the donor of said trust as expressed in said trust deed cannot be accomplished by said Trustees, and praying that said Trustees be authorized and empowered to pay the net income of the fund to such of the defendant towns for their respective school purposes and in such proportions as may be determined by the Court, came to this Court on the first Tuesday of January 1932 and thence to the present time, when all of the parties appeared and filed a stipulation for Judgment dated June 1, 1932, providing for the continuance of said Trustees in accordance with said trust deed, and that the entire yearly Income of said trust fund should be used for the higher education of any child or children having legal residence within the area embraced by the Town of Fairfield as the same existed April 25, 1781, that said income might be accumulated by said Trustees, and that the other terms and conditions of said trust deed should remain in full force and effect as by such stipulation on file more fully appears.

The Court having heard the parties, approved said stipulation.

Whereupon, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the trust fund established by Samuell Staples of the parish of North Fairfield in the TOWN of Fairfield and State of Connecticut on April 25, 1781, to defray the expenses of the education of certain children, be continued in the hands of said Trustees as provided by said deed of trust and that said Trustees shall continue to be self-perpetuating and shall have all the rights and powers granted to them in accordance with the terms of said deed of trust, except as hereinafter more fully set forth.

And it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the entire yearly income of said trust fund shall be used for the higher education of any child or children having a legal residence within the area embraced by the Town of Fairfield as the same existed on April 25, 1781, said higher education to be pursued in some college or university within the United States, said child or children to be so benefited and educated in accordance with the terms of said trust to be selected by the said Trustees under such regulations as they may by majority vote from time to time establish and the college or university to which any such child or children shall be sent to be educated shall likewise be selected by such Trustees in their sole discretion; and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that said Trustees shall have the right in their discretion to accumulate the income of said trust fund from year to year until it is sufficient for the proper carrying out of the intent of said trust deed and the provisions hereinbefore set forth; and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the duration of said trust shall be unlimited as provided in the terms of said trust deed, and each and every other term, condition and provision of said trust deed shall be continued in full force and effect.

THE COURT
